

Department of IS&E (Information Science and Engineering)*ASSIGNMENT-3*Course Name with Code: Research Methodology and IPR (BRMK557) Academic year: 2025-26*Semester: V A,B,C*Max Marks: 10*Date of Given: 17/11/25*Date of Submission: 28/11/25

| Sl.No | Questions                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | CO |
|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 01    | Explain the concept of 'Copyrights' and 'Related Rights' and how they are categorized under intellectual property, Provide examples of works covered under these rights                                                             | 4  |
| 02    | Explain on the criteria for copyright protection, focusing on the qualifications, originality and creative effort required. Provide examples to illustrate these criteria.                                                          | 4  |
| 03    | Distinguish between economic rights and moral rights of copyright owners. Provide examples of activities covered under each type of right.                                                                                          | 4  |
| 04    | Explain the Fair Use Doctrine and its four-part test. Provide examples of situations where the Fair Use Doctrine may be applicable.                                                                                                 | 4  |
| 05    | Describe the procedure for registration of industrial designs in India. Explain the importance of conducting a prior art search before filing an application                                                                        | 5  |
| 06    | What are the rights granted to the holders of geographical indications? Discuss the procedure for registration of geographical indications and the documents required for the registration process.                                 | 5  |
| 07    | Explain the classification of industrial designs based on the Locarno Classification. Explain the significance of classifying industrial designs in the registration process                                                        | 5  |
| 08    | Explain one of the case studies on turmeric and Neem patents and discuss the key issues and outcomes of case. Analyze the impact of these case studies on the protection of traditional knowledge and intellectual property rights. | 5  |
| 09    | Explain the challenges posed by the digital era in the context of copyrights. Discuss the implications of internet use on copyright and the inclusion of computer programs in literary works                                        | 4  |
| 10    | Explain the process of copyright application submission in India. What are the options for submitting the application, and who is eligible to file the application?                                                                 | 4  |
| 11    | Explain the process of copyright application submission in India. What are the options for submitting the application, and who is eligible to file the application?                                                                 | 4  |
| 12    | Explain the significance of trademark symbols, including implications and protection associated with each symbol.                                                                                                                   | 4  |
| 13    | Explain the ownership of geographical indications (GIs) and the rights granted to holders. Discuss the classes of GIs and the protection of GIs. Explain collective or certification marks in the context of GIs.                   | 5  |
| 14    | Define Geographical Indications with example. Explain the procedure for GI Registration.                                                                                                                                            | 5  |
| 15    | Explain one of the case studies on Basmati patents and discuss the key issues and outcomes of case. Analyze the impact of these case studies on the protection of traditional knowledge and intellectual property rights.           | 5  |
| 16    | Explain the concept of design rights. Discuss the enforcement mechanisms available for protecting design rights in India.                                                                                                           | 5  |